

Becoming a Trust Based Supervisor: Management Training (Management Through my Life) (Volume 1)

Being raised on the Coeur d'Alene Indian Reservation and a member of the Village of Kotzebue Tribe, the author was raised with a very specific view of management. Having managed casinos and people throughout his entire adult life he has learned many valuable life lessons that he hopes to impart to those who want a few tools to really up their management game. Using stories and tangents to highlight the lessons he is trying to teach the author helps managers better understand how to be effective leaders.
