

Beauty Surrounds Us: A Words & Images Coffee Table Book

800 years ago a Persian Poet named Rumi wrote the words, Beauty Surrounds Us. In this stunning book of words and images, Suzette McIntyre and Kerrie Flanagan illuminate this thought, portraying beauty in all its aspects through striking photography and thought-provoking poetry. From the tender touch of a child to the deep lines of old age, a simple reflection in a pond to the streets of Florence, this book captures the idea that beauty is in the eye of the beholder and that beauty is everywhere, but we must open our eyes and let it reveal itself. Settle in and immerse yourself in a fresh new view of the world. Beauty Surrounds Us also features the award winning art and poetry of the 2015 Words and Images Competition.
