

Flow Stories: 11 Stories of Flow

The Flow stories are written and illustrated with the look and feel of a modern day Sufi story or a Zen Koan. When reading these stories I was reminded of Heraclitus, the ancient Greek philosopher: I stand in the flow of a river for twenty years. I step out of the river for one moment, and then I step back in the flow of the river again. But that is not the same river I stepped out of. You can not step twice into the same river: for other waters are ever flowing on to you. The simplistic depth of these stories will act as a step or a door to the beginning of finding your Flow. If the authors father were alive, he would be content with the efficient use of his words: say what you mean and mean what you say. It is that same quality of efficiency and economy that we look for in our own Flow. Flow as a practice helps us to resolve conflicts - whether outside or inside. Hopefully, you will find in these Flow stories this same spirit of efficiency and resolution of conflicts.
