

Actions Of The Early Churches

Actions of the Early Churches is a commentary on the New Testament Book of Acts written from a biblical, historical and evangelical point of view. As a skillful writer, Brother Holmes insight into the book of Acts gives the student a very practical and theological perspective of the Holy Spirits work in the lives of those first century Christians and the apostles. This book is a study manual, a reference source and a textbook commentary on the important role and development of the Lords New Testament churches during that first century. In addition to a detailed commentary, often on a verse-by-verse basis, Brother Holmes book provides the student with the essential knowledge of what took place among those first century Christians and the Lords New Testament churches.
