

Dedicated by Permission to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Dedicated by Permission to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen Several of the ancestors of Weber belonging to an old and noble Austrian family, were distinguished by a devotion, bordering almost on mania, to music and the stage. A Baron Joseph Franz Weber had a small theatre and concert-room erected upon his own estate as early as the beginning of the seventeenth century. In the thirty years war, and the troublous times following it, the Austrian property was lost to the family, the members of which found new homes in the service of some of the petty princes who were then swarming all over Germany. Two brothers, Fridolin and Fianz Anton von Weber, uncle and father of Carl Maria, are spoken of as renowned amateurs at the court of Karl Theodor, Elector of the Palatinate, about the middle of the eighteenth century. One of Fridolins daughters, Constance, became a celebrated vocalist, and the wife of the great Mozart, the two eminent composers being thus cousins by marriage.
