

From Azusa to Africa to the Nations 2nd Edition

In this book the author points the Pentecostal church in Africa back to its missionary roots. He believes that the Assemblies of God in Africa has come to a crossroads. It will either follow the false gospel of health, wealth, and prosperity or it will follow the true gospel that says, Christ died for the sins of all mankind, and He has called us, His church, to take that message to all nations before He comes again. Miller believes that God has raised up the Pentecostal church as a last-days, Spirit-empowered missionary movement. This Second Edition of the book contains an added chapter on The Women of Azusa Street.
