

The EaSeL: Adventures in English as a Second Language Volume 1

In The EaSeL, we present three different stories, aimed at readers who are learning English as a Second Language, or who are native English speakers who have had difficulty learning to read. The Sports Kids is aimed at children, and features a boy and a girl who intend to be professional sports stars when they grow up. The Word Gamers is aimed at teens and adults, and features characters who travel the world entering word game tournaments such as Scrabble. The tournaments are held at different locations - such as on The Last Train to Deadwood or The Last Rocket to the Moon. The Translator is also aimed at teens and adults. Kay Vance is a professional translator. In her introductory story, she overhears an interpreter giving the wrong interpretation to his client, and stumbles into a world of jewelry theft and high-class suspects. The EaSeL Kindle Edition is published every two weeks. Two chapters of each story are included in each issue, along with a study guide for each chapter.
