Jordan Wolfson: California

Initially conceived to document Jordan Wolfsons 2014 exhibition at David Zwirner in New York?his first with the gallery, featuring new sculptural work, a video and his much-discussed animatronic sculpture (Female figure) 2014?this publication, born out of a close collaboration between Wolfson and book designer Joseph Logan, ultimately exists as a hybrid of an exhibition catalogue and an expression of Wolfsons artistic vision. Featuring large color plates, the book is anchored by photographs of Wolfsons bewitching, repulsive (Female figure) 2014 taken by Andreas Laszlo Konrath, who documented every aspect of the exhibition including many behind-the-scenes images of its gallery installation. Also included are reproductions of Wolfsons new series of wall-mounted sculptures comprised of bumper stickers overlaid on inkjet prints, candid photographs of the artist taken by Gaea Woods and a text by the artist providing context for the visual material.
