

The Selfward Facing Way: A Course for Living the Direct Experience of Your Eternal Nature (Volume 1)

This course is in service to the infinity that you are. It deals only with our investigation into what is actually here, moment by moment. The book points you directly to the boundless, ever-present totality of existence, which is your real and unchanging nature beyond life and death. Through Self-Inquiry, or concept-free meditation, you can discover this to be the truth of yourself and live your life in continuous recognition that your being is the source of all things, all thoughts and feelings, all experiences, all bodies. Facing Selfward is the joyous investment of your lifetime, because it becomes self-evident that you are the Whole and can never be extinguished by any circumstance or cause. Your true size is inconceivably immense and extends infinitely in all directions. Nothing is separate from You. You can surrender to This. Trust. Soft cover books are also being distributed by donation. Details at faceselfward.net. This first volume is on Understanding. The second volume on Practice will be published in 2013.
