

The 10th Part of Glory: Planets in the Dashamsha Lagna

To thoroughly assess an individual's karmic potential with regards to career success, achievements, and status in life, as well to time significant events, the ancient classics of Jyotisha recommend the use of the dashamsha, or the tenth divisional. This unique and original research by the author demonstrates how planets that appear in the lagna, or first house of this division can give particularly spectacular results in their major periods when strong and configured in good yogas. Consisting of over 40 pages in manuscript format, this e-book also sheds light on the methodology for identifying which sub-periods will time the major events, as well as how this divisional chart can be used to rectify birth times. A must read for serious student of Vedic Astrology!
