

An Artists Journey: Book 2

Join award winning textile artist Jean M. Judd as she continues to share her journey as a textile artist and art quilter in this ongoing series of books. Discover the evolution of her art studio from 1982 to the present. She shares some of her thoughts, inspirations, and influences that are reflected in how she works and the artworks exhibited across the United States. View a diverse selection of her hand stitched textile artworks and commission pieces from 1995 to 2010. Her introspection, sharing of ideas and contemplation may also shed some light on your own journey: professionally, personally, spiritually, or artistically.
