

A Story You Know, Two

Once I envisioned I was in a bottle with a mask on that created the world I had around me. The avatars could see what I was doing in my world via cinema screen whenever they wished. They could also come into my world if they wished. The people in the shopping centre, random people will comment just before I think it in my mind. I know what Im going to think and theyll comment, without me even saying it in my mind. Apparently they know already, they keep telling me they do. Now they are just confirming the fact that they know and they are telling me that its good Im writingthis, now they are laughing that Im writing. They then they tell me I need a head. I need a head? If God gave me a head I would have one?
